the time devouring Bolshevik literature but it never occurred to their humanitarian sm to give up a seat to the tired woman. They evidently know adversity but it had not taught them charity.

All this propaganda work gives emdoyment to a large number of perons, and there are special training schools for apt candidates. Recently, a group of young men speaking severai languages went to the foreign office to seek employment, and they were told that the only work that was open was to act locally as sples or to go to Bucharest, Vienna or Paris and carry on propaganda work theme. This is in contradiction to the promise made by the ministers to the Americans that they would not attempt to disseminate their ideas abroad if they were left alone at home.

Among the original converts who have been converted back again are the men of the ironworkers union who have formed a secret guard of fourteen thousand members to protect Budapest if a massacre of the bourgeoisie be attempted.

Two women of American origin, Marcella Lind Jellinek, a singer, and Mrs. Isidore C. Shasza (formerly Mary Wasserman of New York), who is related to the Seligman banking family, have filled their houses with homeless friends so as to escape the *************
